Presented By Senior Class

Mount Olive High School

Mount Olive, North Carolina

TO THESE STUDENTS

The magnificent progress of modern education has given the students of today an incredibly rich and varying knowledge of today's needs. Modern education is based on the lore of the past, yet inspires one to meet the challenge of the future. True education gives one not only knowledge, but the ability and wisdom to use it for the best interests of mankind. Our system of education is not yet perfect, but the heights it has already reached give promise of still greater things to come.

The students of Mount Olive High School were, are, and will be endeavoring to fulfill these ideals.

Mrs. Ferrell not only spends much of her time helping her students with their intellectual problems, but also helps with extracurricular activities.

DEDICATION

We, the graduating class of 1961 dedicate this yearbook with deep affection and admiration to Mrs. Tommy Ferrell. It is our way of expressing our gratitude and our sincere appreciation for all that she has done as a teacher, counselor, and friend. We shall long remember her interest and untiring efforts in all our activities.

To Mrs. Ferrell we say, thank you.

Richard!
My very best to you always - It has been a real pleasure working with you and having you in my class - Come by for a Pepsi when you have time -
Mrs. Ferrell

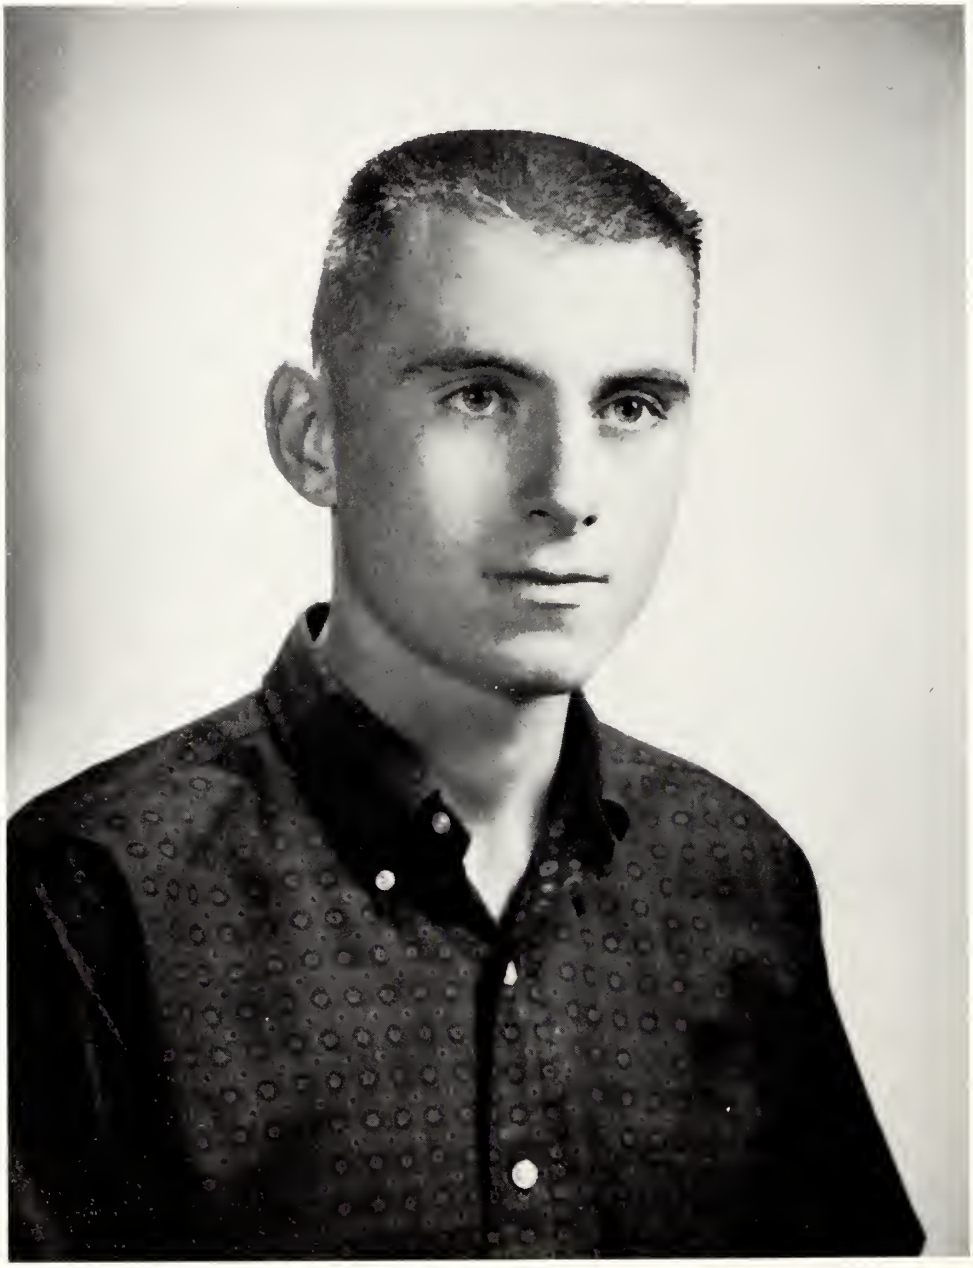
IN MEMORIAM



BRUCE EMERSON 1943-1960

We picture him as we remember him . . . student, athlete, and friend. He was one of us, but he went out from us. But for circumstances beyond our knowing he would have taken his place in our grey lines of commencement. It is with loving memory that we dedicate this page - - - a symbol of the love we still have for him.

LOCAL COMMITTEE

A group vitally important to our school system, and yet probably more criticized than any other, is the local school board. The members have given of their time, talents, and wisdom to improve our schools and have shown, through their decisions on important issues, their exceptional ability to guide our school. They are from left to right: Chairman, Bill Porter, Jr., Billy Farmer, J. C. Stephenson, Jr., Charles Kraft and seated Principal Harry J. Archer. Absent, Jack Lister.

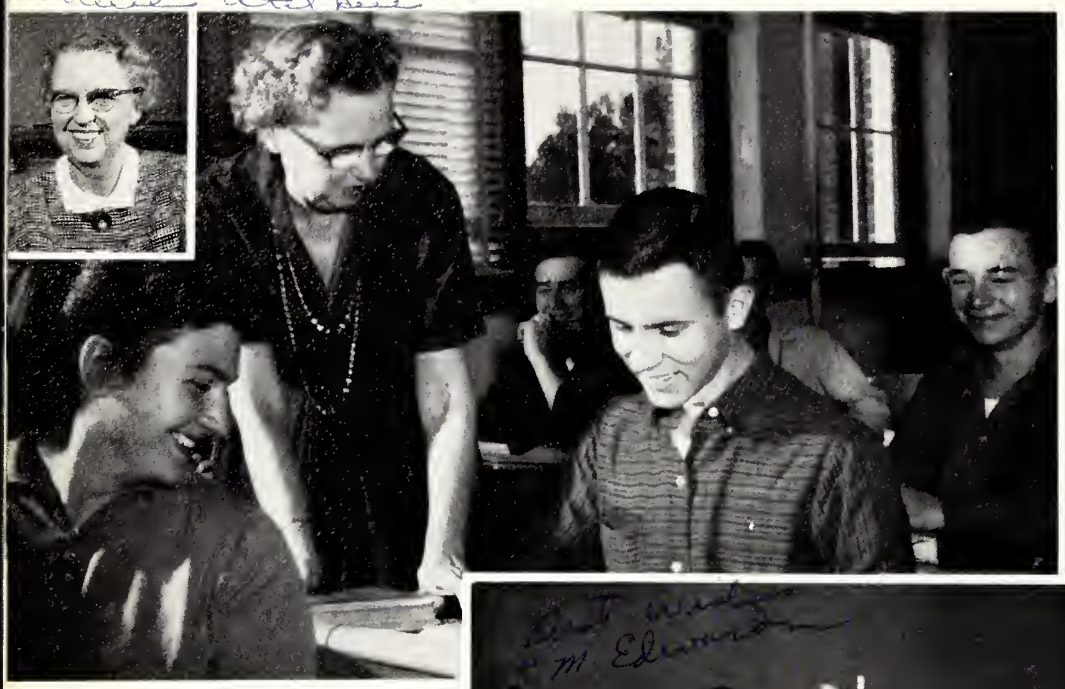
PREPARES STUDENTS TO COMPETE



MATH

Steadily progressing in the field of mathematics, Algebra II students explore the possibilities of the unknown.

Mathematician Tommy Carroll receives valuable assistance from his instructor, Miss Watkins, while other members of the class listen intensively.

NATURAL SCIENCE

Running a close second to physics in this outer space marathon is the study of chemistry. In the chemistry classes, scientifically minded students become familiar with many chemical substances.

Scientists Richard Porter, Joyce Price, Gray Geddie, Bobby Martin, Ann Byrd, and Eugene Bryan await a reation to Edward's experiment.

COMMERCIAL

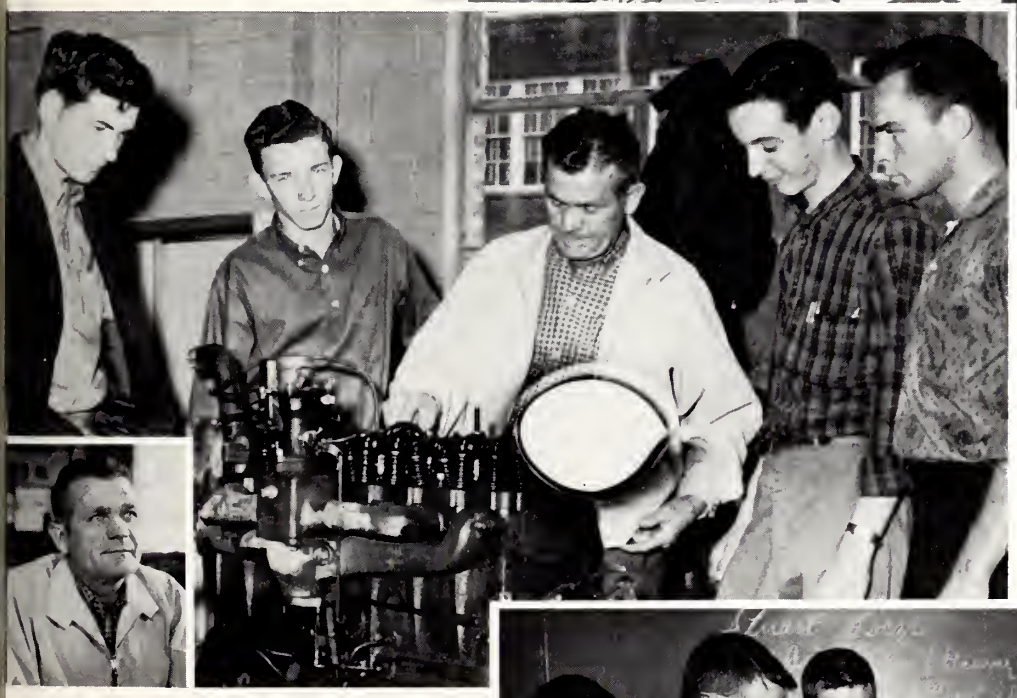
Glenn Dail, first year typing student, watches attentively as Miss Smith points out the "do's and don'ts" of caring for the typewriter.

Her students have learned that proper care of their typewriters is essential to exceed in good typing.

IN A HIGHLY TECHNICAL WORLD . . .

HOME ECONOMICS

Special attention is given to Miss Robertson by Brenda, Judy, Caroline, Susie, Lavice, and Brenda as she explains the steps that must be taken in filling a bobbin. This is only one of their many projects. Instruction includes such duties as planning home meals and canning.



AGRICULTURE

Are these our future engineers? Millard, Buddy, Reid, and Dallas with their instructor, Mr. Wood, are learning the basic steps for building a motor. This is one of their many projects in the applied mechanics class.

GUIDANCE

Guidance is a new course taught by Mrs. Williams. She converses with students concerning their plans for the future. She also teaches English. Bobby, Corky, Rodney, D.C., and Tiny listen tentatively as she explains early English Literature.

FOR A BETTER TOMORROW

COACH

Mr. Williams, sociology instructor, points out the importance of sociology in every day life to Rodney Knowles. Presently his class has been participating in panel discussions of marriage and divorce.

COACH

Mr. McClenny is very active in intellectual studies as well as physical development of young people. Participating in calisthenics is one of the favorite pastimes of the students.

PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT

Coach McClenny and Coach Williams work hand-in-hand to keep up the high standards of their new physical development program.

These Seniors were waiters and waitresses at the 1959 Junior-Senior banquet which had a Dutch theme.

In May, 1957, we graduated from the eighth grade. As we had our pictures taken on the steps of a building which was to be our future home for four years, we were anxiously awaiting, but a little dubious of these years. Now we know what these years brought for we lived each of them, day by day, with their joys, and sorrows.

In May of 1961, we will again have a picture as a group on these steps, but as proud SENIORS with a lifetime awaiting.

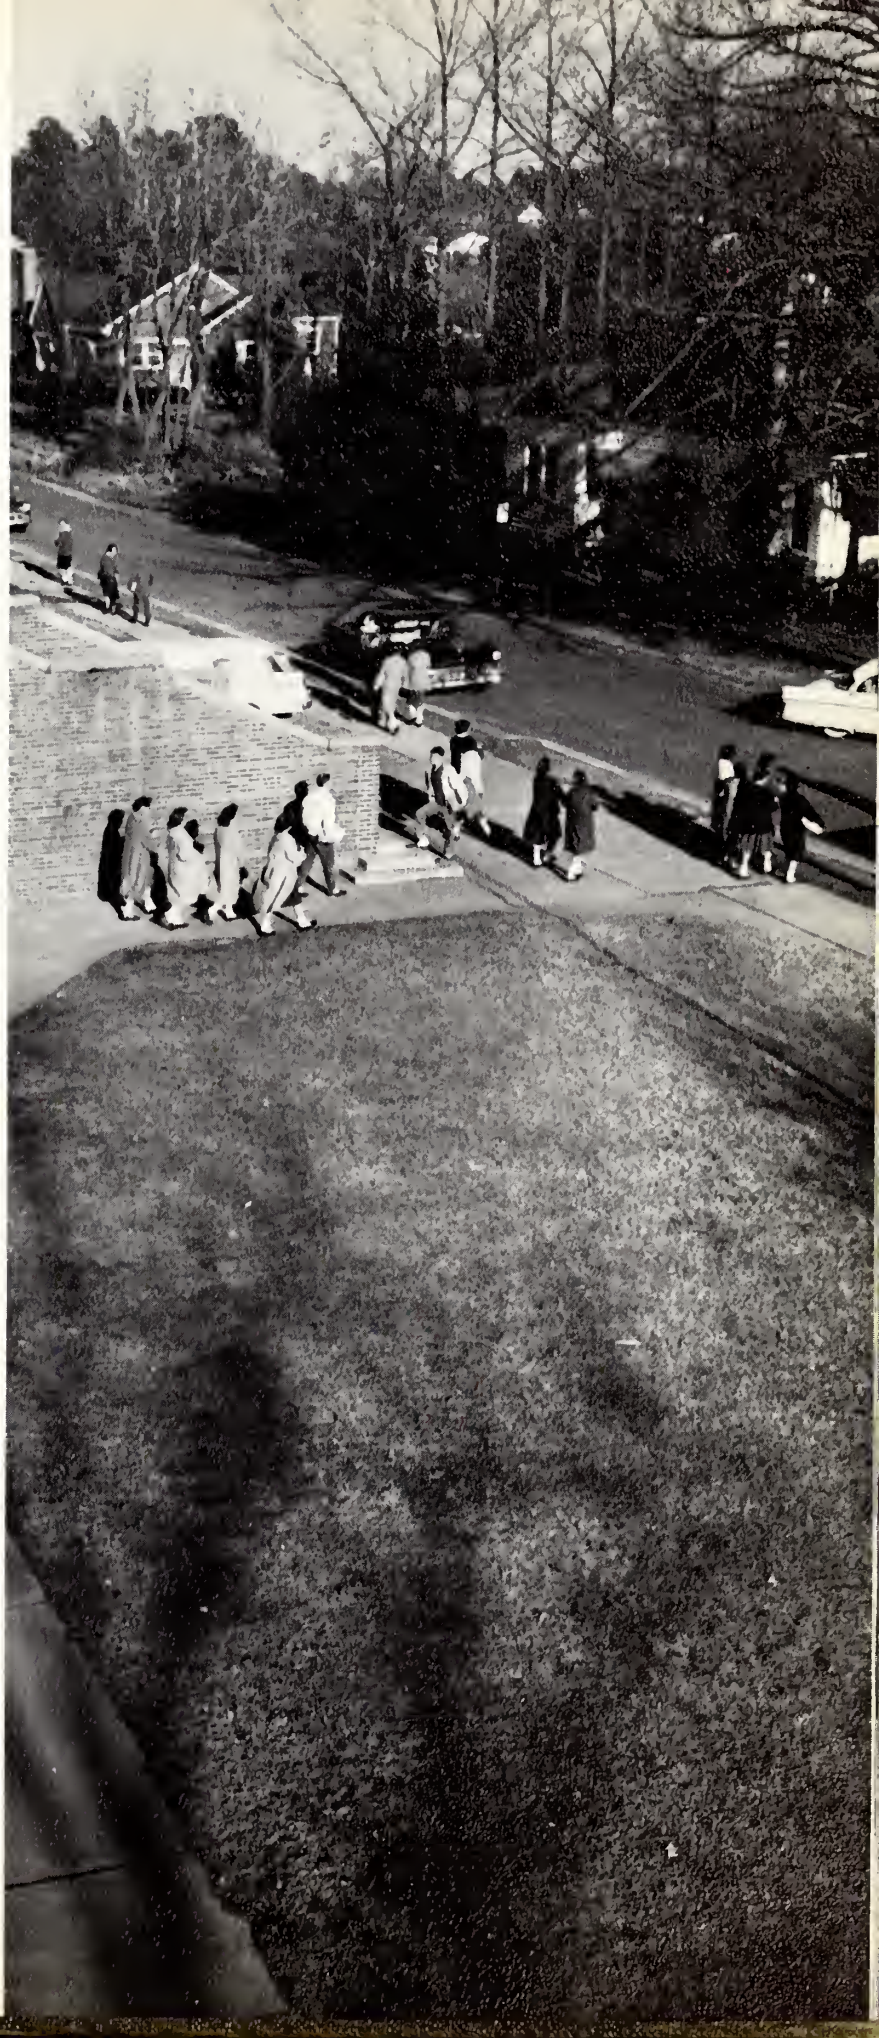
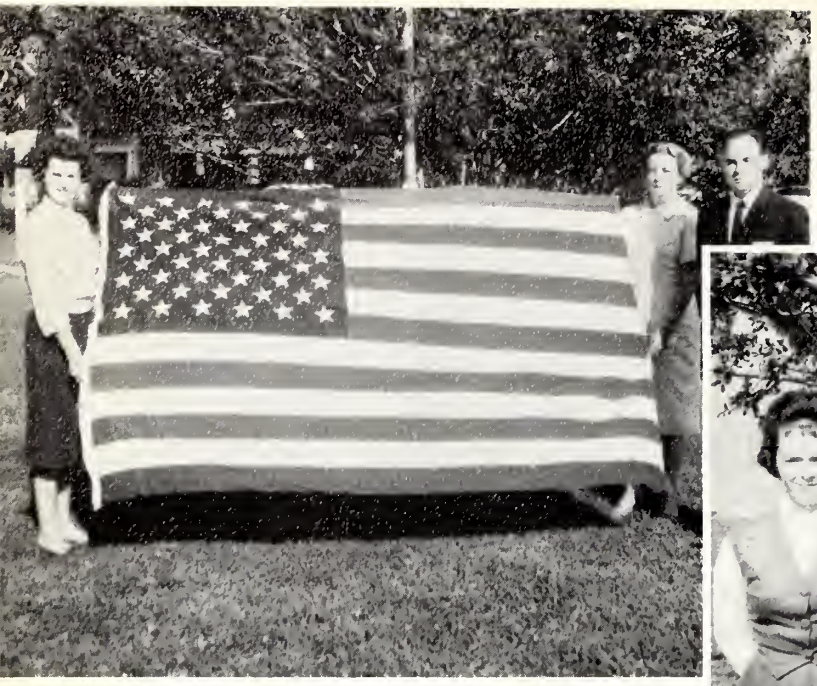
Here are a few of our active Freshmen building a huge snowman after one of our largest snow storms.

Shown below are some of our Freshmen girls when they were Brownies. Recognize them?

ACTIVITIES AND ORGANIZATIONS

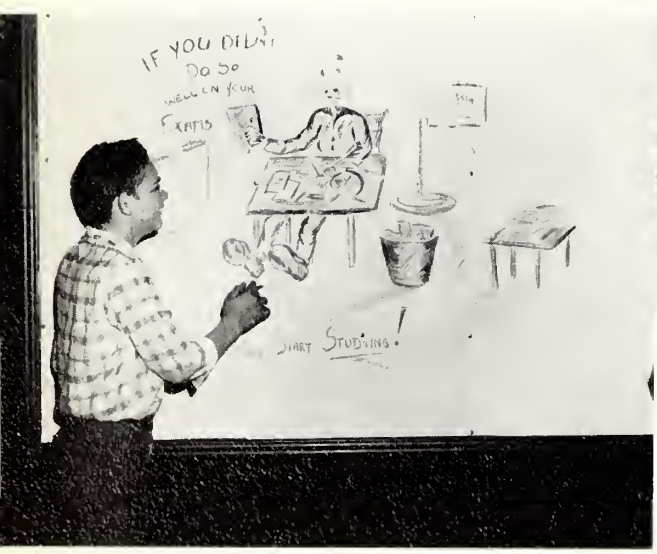




Kathryn Kivette of Washington D.C. presented the United States flag to Mount Olive High School in the name of her granddaughter, Myatt Kornegay. Holding the flag is Mrs. Lillian Kornegay and Myatt Kornegay. Also pictured is Mr. H. J. Archer, principal.

The flagbearers for 1960-1961 are Mamie Lou Williams, Florence Carol Wilson, Shirley Faucette, and Norma Carole Summerlin, They look very attractive as they show off their new uniforms. These four girls play a very active part in all the school activities.

OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES MAKE



Darby Whitman and Heinz Staude prepare a bulletin board for Miss Watkins, math instructor. This is one of the most popular projects of Mount Olive High School students. This particular bulletin board is very attractive and contains some good advice.

The entries in the 1959-1960 Peace Speaking Contest were Penny Hume, Ralph Puckett, Baxton Flowers, Norma Carole Summerlin, Mary Hontz, Joey Robertson, and Gwin Lee Cox. First place winner was Baxton Flowers. Norma Cole Summerlin and Ralph Puckett tied for second place.

Basketball season has arrived again. Coach McClenny goes over a few instructions with Sarah Dail, Nancy Warren, and Ann Swinson before practice begins.

Mr. Cecil Winstead, Band President, awarded Benny Smith a trophy for the most outstanding member of the Mount Olive High School Band.

SCHOOL MORE INTERESTING

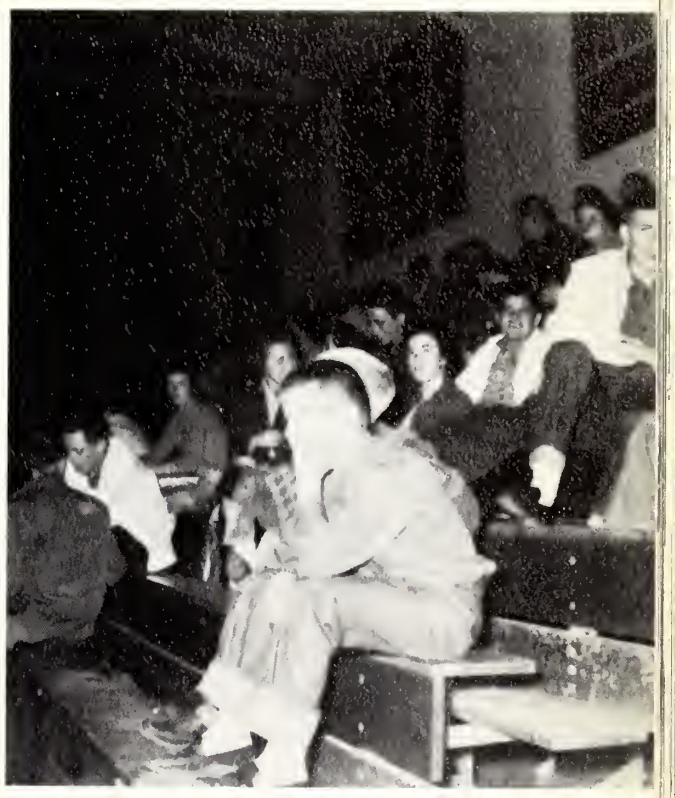
Mr. Cecil Winstead, Band President, awarded D. C. Summerlin a trophy for the most valuable member of the Mount Olive High School Band.

Ann May, Varsity Queen, and Norma Carole Summerlin, Glenda Jones, Varsity Queen Attendants, are shown as they were at half-time of the Homecoming game.

Glenda Jones was chosen by the Daughters of the American Revolution to receive the D. A. R. citizenship award. Glenda and her mother were honored by taking a tour of Tryon Palace at New Bern, North Carolina.

Mary Frances Lowder was crowned Miss Holiday Season at the Hotel Goldsboro. She was presented a necklace by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Senior girls of Mount Olive High School were given an opportunity to participate in the National Betty Crocker Homemakers Contest. Ann Byrd was the winner and will be eligible to enter the state contest. She will receive an award on Awards Day.



Basketball games are very popular with the students at Mount Olive High School. Pictured above are a few of students who attended one of the games.

An ice cream stand was opened this year to provide refreshments at recess for the students of Mount Olive High School. The proceeds of this new project go to the school fund.

"RAGGEDY NAN"

This is one of the dramatic scenes from our play, "Raggedy Nan." Woody Best seems to be getting the attention of Norma Carole Summerlin and Ann May.

Here the play cast is seen performing one of their most delightful scenes in the three-act comedy. "Raggedy Nan." This production was one of the best that has ever been performed on the Mount Olive High School stage. Mrs. Tommie Ferrell and Miss Sarah Smith were the considerate directors of this performance. Ann Byrd was the stage prompter.

JUNIOR — SENIOR

A formal dance followed the Junior-Senior Banquet. The New Bern High School dance band provided the dance music. The Hawaiian scene added to the enchantment of the evening. The time spent decorating for this occasion was worth while for the evening was a great success.

The Juniors and Seniors are enjoying themselves at their lovely Hawaiian banquet. We owe many thanks to our grade-representatives and parents for the preparation of this wonderful event.

REPRESENTATIVE QUEENS

Glenda Sasser was chosen by the Future Farmers of America as their 1960-61 Future Farmers of America Queen.

Miss Ann May was chosen Varsity Queen by the 1960 football squad. She was crowned at the Homecoming football game.

Mary Frances Lowder represented Mount Olive High School in the Christmas parade at Goldsboro. She was chosen Miss Holiday Season for 1960. After the crowning she was honored at a supper at the Hotel Goldsboro.

1961 MO

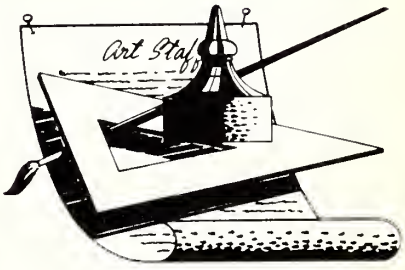
Hard-working editorial staff Peggy Price and Glenda Sasser make future preparations for the next shipment. Much concentration and accuracy are essential and determining factors for this job.

Preparations for the 1961 MOHI took many hours of hard work. Conducting an aggressive subscription campaign, planning layouts, writing copy, checking names, and typing all demanded serious concentration on the part of the editors, business staff, and typists to bring you the 1960-61 year in review.

Enthusiastic typists, Ann Stephens, head, Lynette Smith, Dorothy Wood, and Hayward Adams, work overtime to meet deadlines. Their hard work has been very essential in the preparation of the 1960-61 MOHI.

HI STAFF

Business Manager, Mamie Lou Williams, and circulation manager, Glenda Jones, check in receipts of advertisements. These girls not only worked during the school term, but also contributed much of their time during the summer. Their job is a never ending task of daily management.



From right to left, chief art editor, Tommy Carroll and assistants, Millard Turnage, Jimmy Weeks, and Nolan Wiggins are hard at work designing the 1960-61 yearbook.

Proofreaders, Gwin Lee Cox and Gladys Cooke, are seen here as they check over the last shipment of copy sheets. Proofreading of stencil sheets is vitally important in the successful production of an annual.

MOUNT OLIVE HIGH SCHOOL

The Mount Olive High School marching band participates in various parades. They handsomely represent Mount Olive High School at the football games with their formations and music at half-time. We are proud to say that our band won first place at the Armistice Day parade at Warsaw, North Carolina.

MARCHING BAND

The high-stepping majorettes add beauty and talent to our band. Betsy Cox, head, has done a commendable iob instructing Betty Smith, Becky Troutman, Betsy Lee Flowers, Brenda Smith, Mary Bevan Boyd, Diane Smith, and Susie Francis.

The flagbearers accompany the Mount Olive High School Band in all the activities that the band participates in.

They are Mamie Lou Williams, Shirley Faucette, Florence Carole Wilson, and Norma Carole Summerlin.

DRUM MAJOR

Our newly appointed Drum Major is Douglas Outlaw. He has played a very important role in this year's band activities.

GLEE CLUB

Our school is very proud of the newly organized Glee Club under the direction of Mrs. W. J. Flowers. The eighty-voice Glee Club has performed at Assemblies, P.T.A. meetings, and commencements. Since this club has been formed, it meets twice a week during activity period. During this time much has been accomplished through the co-operation of the students.

The officers of the Glee Club are Norma Carole Summerling, reporter; Ann May, secretary-treasurer; Betty Bracey, vice president; Mamie Lou Williams; president.

Standing are the librarians: Betsy Lee Flowers, Ann Stephens, Judy Vernon, Linda Murray, Shirley Faucette, and Lynette Smith.

Mrs. W. J. Flowers, Glee Club Director, and Beverly Scarborough, accompanist, are seen rehearsing for their next session. We are very grateful to Mrs. Flowers for her contribution of time and effort in forming the Glee Club.

BETA CLUB

These are the Senior members of the Beta Club, which are at the present drawing up a new constitution with the intentions of taking in new members soon.

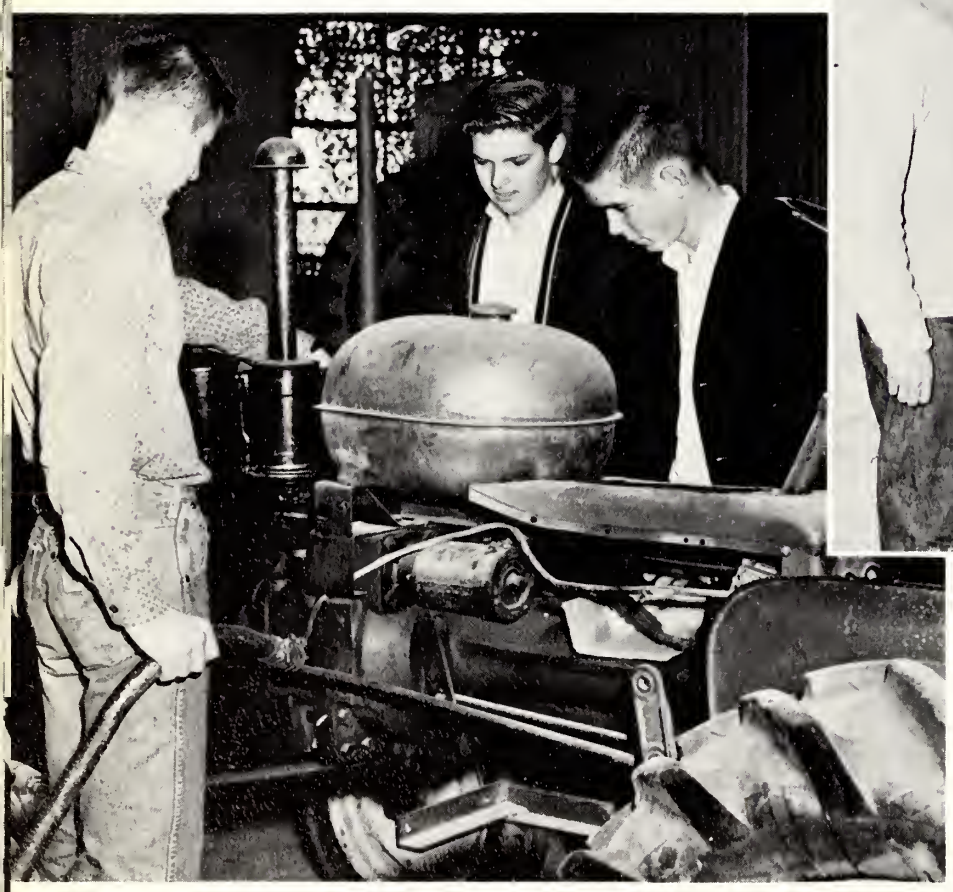
One of their many projects is typing the school menus each week. They have many fund raising projects toward their annual social.

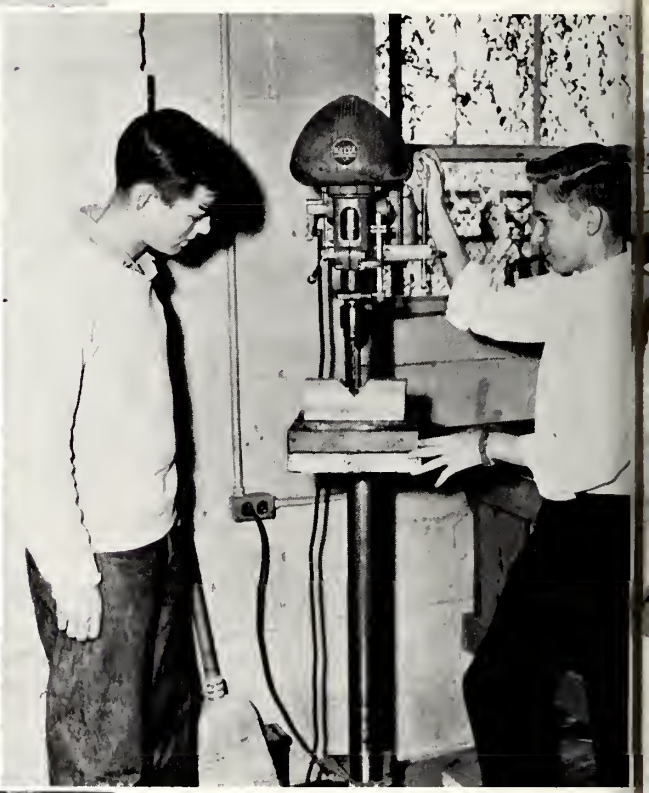
SCIENCE CLUB

Shown above is the newly formed Science Club with their advisor, Mr. L. M. Edwards. They have taken a trip to Chapel Hill, North Carolina, where they visited the things of scientific interest at the University.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The officers of the Future Farmers of America are: James Best, vice president; Eugene Bryan, president; Russell Parker, treasurer; Dallas Weaver, secretary; Gene Brewer and Earl Grimes, reporters.





Joe Thomas is looking with interest as Hayward Hardy operates the electric drill press in the agricultural building. This is one of the many helpful trainings that the boys receive under the direction of their instructor, Mr. W. O. Wood.

The Future Farmers of America must know the different parts of a tractor. Above Ralph Hinson is pointing out and explaining in detail the parts of a tractor. Carroll McCullen and James McCullen listen attentively in order to further their knowledge of mechanical devices. This knowledge is extremely important in today's modern world of machinery.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

One of the many things learned in Home Economics III is home nursing. This is an extra course given for the benefit of the students.

Cindy Rowe is demonstrating with Norma Carole Summerlin how to take the temperature of someone sick.

Many girls take Home Economics, I, II, and III. Here Miss Mabel Robertson is explaining how to place the pattern on the material to a group of Sophomore girls. She also gives many helpful suggestions to the girls on sewing.

Betty Harrell is showing Gayle Williams and Brenda Wesley how to operate this new sewing machine, recently purchased for the Home Economics Department.

Every girl needs to know how to cook. There is no better place to learn than in the Home Economics Department.

BUS DRIVERS

These are the bus drivers of our seven buses. They do an excellent job in bringing students to and from school.

Safe driving and a good sense of responsibility are the basis on which the drivers are chosen.

They are Jimmy Smith, Ray Weeks, Jimmy Jackson, Kay Casey, Glenda Sasser, Martha Ann Hall, and Elnor Barwick.

OUR LUNCH ROOM

Mrs. Alma Brock, Mrs. Sally Hardy, and Mrs. Pearl Manley are the capable staff under the supervision of Miss Althea Herring, who do an excellent job of preparing our well-balanced meals each day.

As the bell rings hungry students rush through the line where they receive their lunch in cafeteria style.

This new arrangement proves the students to be responsive to a change in routine. This time is well-spent in socializing with friends.

SPORTS

FOOT

Assistant Coach Jimmy Williams and Head Coach Dave McClenny go over football plays for the coming game. Coach Williams is a newcomer to Athletic department and proved to be a large help to Coach McClenny.

Coach McClenny was chosen, last year, to be "Coach of the Year" for the single class A conference.

This year there are four senior players on the team. They were L. B. Brewer, Les Ipock, Woody Best, and Pete Thomas. All four players saw a lot of action and aided us quite a bit in our 1960 season.

SQUAD

BALL

Manager Dickie Reaves assisted Coach McClenny and Coach Williams during the season. Dickie had a big job to do and he did it wonderfully.

Corky Smith grabs a Shallott player as they defeat them 40-7.

VARSITY QUEEN

ANN MAY

ATTENDANTS

Attendants, Miss Norma Carole Summerlin and Miss Glenda Jones wave to the football fans as they ride off the field Homecoming night.

The Varsity Queen and the two Attendants were chosen by the members of the football squad.

NORMA CAROLE SUMMERLIN

Ann Carol May smiles as last year's Varsity Queen, Jane Clifton, crowns her Varsity Queen of 1960.

In voting for the queen the football players consider appearance, personality, and character in the girls they choose.

GLENDA JONES

Coach Dave McClenny and Norma Carole Summerlin hold the trophies just presented them for winning the Southern Conference and Wayne County Tournament.

Miss Summerlin is the only senior girl on the team.

The "Champs" smile as their picture is snapped while holding up their trophies. The girls received large trophies for the conference and the tournament and individual trophies.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders led by Lynette Smith did a wonderful job cheering at all the football games.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Sankie Jean Glenn, Norma Carole Summerlin and Ann Carole May. These girls were responsible for decorating the football field for all home games. Also they were in charge of Homecoming night and all the decorations that were needed.

There are two more members of the Association that are not pictured. They are: Kay Casey and Sarah Dail.

1961 GIRLS'

NANCY WARREN

BRENDA JONES

Coach McClenny started out this season with only four experienced players, and ended up with a Championship team. During the season the girls only lost two games, each by one point and one of them was in an overtime. Coach McClenny thinks the season was a success and truly worth all the hard work that goes with basketball. All the players but one will be back next year so the future for the Pantherettes still looks bright.

THRILLS WE REMEMBER

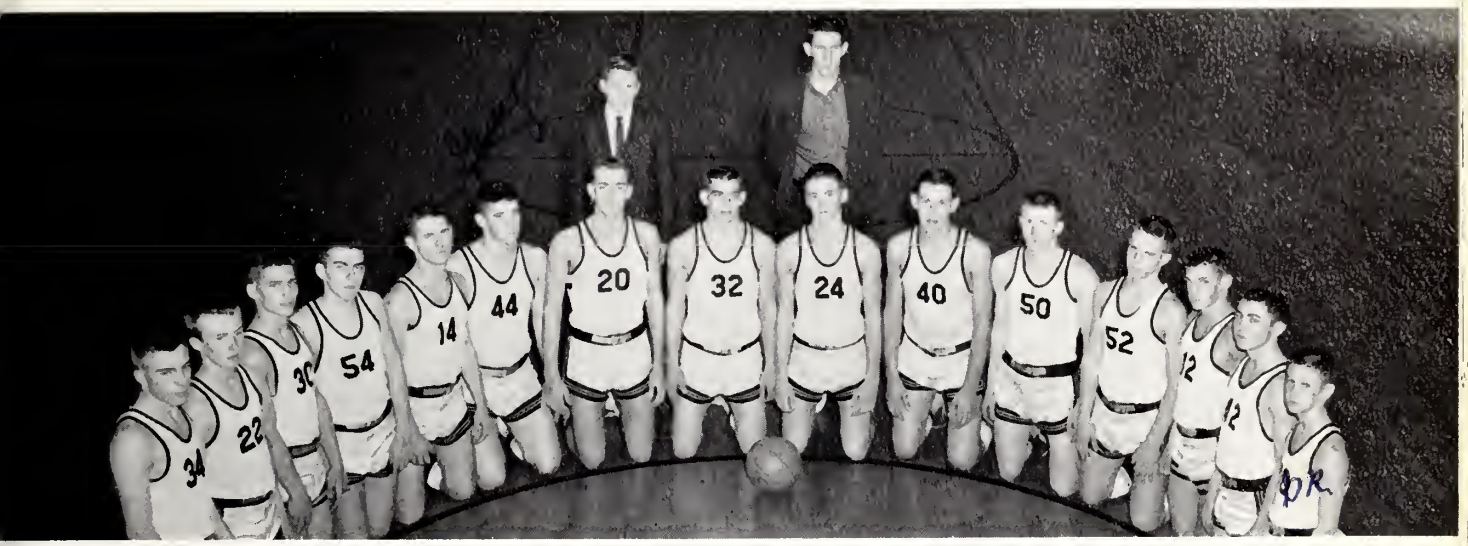
Carole Wilson passes the ball off to Beverly Scarborough during the Grantham game. We won 47-33.

A North Duplin guard ties the ball up with Mary Dell Barwick. The final score was 50-24 in our favor.

Again we see Mary Dell Barwick during the North Duplin game. This time she sends the ball through the air to land in the basket and give us two more points.

Norma Carole Summerlin is trying to pass the ball off over the head of a New Hope guard. We defeated New Hope 41-39.

1961 — BOYS' BASKETBALL



SQUAD: Andy Wells, Earl Grimes, Gene Brewer, D. C. Summerlin, Dallas Sutton, Gray Geddie, Bryce Morrison, Bud King, L. B. Brewer, Les Ipock, Coach Williams, Larry Jones, Foye Best, Roddy Knowles, Doug Simmons, Ross Blanton and Dickie Reaves.

Dallas Sutton takes a foul shot after being fouled by a New Hope player. L. B. Brewer, number 32 gets ready for the rebound.

L. B. Brewer tries to guard the North Duplin players as they rush down the court. Bryce Morrison lends a helping hand.

Mount Olive boys and New Hope boys line up for a jump ball. L. B. Brewer jumps while Bryce Morrison, Gray Geddie and Les Ipock line up to get that ball.

1960 BASEBALL

Benny Smith gets ready to hit a long one from pitcher Doyle Whitfield.

Benny Smith goes up to bat again while catcher Joseph Caviness gets ready.

Looking on are Andy Wells, Jimmy Wood, and Gene Brewer.

Pete Thomas just does make it as Tommy Sutton receives the ball. That was a close one, even in practice.
